9. Making a request in terms of the Act

- 9.1 The first step in the process is to obtain “Request Form 2”.
- 9.2 You are also able to get the form together with a list of applicable fees from the Head Office of Woolworths Group, indicated in the street address, or via the email address provided above. These fees must be paid before access to a record will be allowed. You will be informed of the amount of your fees once you have submitted your request. The Minister may exempt certain persons from having to pay the fees referred to in the Act. To date, no such exemptions have been published. If the request is made orally as a result of illiteracy or a disability of a requester, the Information Officer will assist you to complete the prescribed form.
- 9.3 Once you have filled in the form you need to submit it to the Information Officer at the postal address, fax number listed above or electronic mail: compliance@woolworths.co.za / privacyrequest@wfs.co.za
- 9.4 If the record you have requested exists and allowing access to it does not affect a third party your request will be processed within 30 days.
- 9.5 This period may be extended once for a further 30 days if:
 - 9.5.1 the request is for a large number of records or requires a search through a large number of records and compliance with the original period would unreasonably interfere with the activities of the Woolworths Group;
 - 9.5.2 the request requires a search for records in, or collection thereof from, an office of the Woolworths Group not situated in the same town or city as the office of the Information Officer and this search cannot reasonably be completed within the original 30 days;
 - 9.5.3 consultation among divisions of the Woolworths Group or with another private body is necessary or desirable to decide upon the request and this consultation cannot reasonably be completed within the original period;
 - 9.5.4 more than one of the circumstances contemplated in the prior paragraphs exist in respect of the request making compliance with the original period not reasonably

- possible; or
9.5.5 you, as the requester, consent in writing to such extension.

10. Grounds for Refusal

- 10.1 There are various grounds upon which your request for access to a record may be refused.

They are:

- 10.1.1 the protection of personal information of a third person (who is a natural person) from unreasonable disclosure;
- 10.1.2 the protection of commercial information of a third party (for example trade secrets; financial, commercial, scientific or technical information that may harm the commercial or financial interests of a third party);
- 10.1.3 refusing access to a record if disclosure would result in the breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party;
- 10.1.4 refusing access to a record if it would jeopardise the safety of an individual or prejudice or impair certain property rights of a third person;
- 10.1.5 refusing access to a record that was produced during legal proceedings, unless that legal privilege has been waived;
- 10.1.6 refusing access to a record containing trade secrets, financial or sensitive information or any information that would put the Woolworths Group at a disadvantage in negotiations or prejudice it in commercial competition;
- 10.1.7 refusing access to a record containing information about research being carried out or about to be carried out on behalf of a third party or by the Woolworths Group;
- 10.1.8 Section 70 of the Act contains an overriding provision. Disclosure is compulsory if it would reveal a substantial contravention of, or failure to comply with the law, or imminent and serious public safety or environmental risk and the public interest in the disclosure of the record clearly outweighs the harm contemplated by its disclosure; and
- 10.1.9 if your request does affect a third party then we will first need to inform the third party within 21 days of us receiving your request. By this we mean that if the record you request affects any third party in any way, that third party will have to be informed that you are requesting access to the above record. The third party then has 21 days to make representations and/or submissions regarding the granting of access to the record.

11. The Information Officer’s Decision and Requester’s Recourse

- 11.1 Once the Information Officer of the Woolworths Group has heard all the submissions, he or she will make a decision as to whether or not access to the record will be granted. If the request is granted, you will then be granted access to the record within 30 days of being informed of the decision.
- 11.2 If the Information Officer does decide to grant you access to the record, but the request affects a third party, the third party that has been affected has 30 days in which to appeal the decision, also in the High Court. If no appeal is lodged within 30 days, you must be granted access to the record.
- 11.3 If the Information Officer does not grant you access to the record you are entitled to appeal the decision and will need to lodge your appeal in the High Court. You will receive reasons as to why the request was refused.

PROTECTING YOUR PRIVACY

Protecting your privacy is as important to us as it is to you. For us, it's more than just making sure we comply with the relevant legislation; you trust us with your personal information and we respect that trust. This privacy notice explains why and how we collect, use and store your personal information. If you have any questions please contact us at 0860 022 002 or at custserv@woolworths.co.za.

All of the provisions of this privacy notice are important, but please pay special attention to the parts that are in bold writing. These parts contain information about provisions that have special consequences for you. These parts are only intended to bring such provisions to your attention, and, where necessary, to explain their fact, nature and effect. Where explanations are given, they may be contained in a box. Such boxed explanations are aids to understanding only and are not provisions themselves. They do not limit the meaning or application of the provisions, and do not apply only to the situations and examples described in the boxes or only to similar situations or examples.

What is this notice about?

We want you to understand who you are sharing your information with, what kind of information we are collecting and how we use the information.

This privacy notice is part of our agreement with you.

This privacy notice forms part of our agreement with you. You should read it along with the terms and conditions that apply. These terms and conditions can be accessed here.
